

Netivot, a Montessori school in East Brunswick, NJ, seeks a Montessori trained Upper Elementary Guide for the 2025-26 school year.

Candidates must exhibit strong communication skills, have a collaborative, team player mindset, and an intrinsic respect for children. Must have previous experience working in Montessori environments.

Responsibilities include teaching all curricular areas as part of a team with a co-teacher; presenting all lessons using approved Montessori techniques; recording and reporting on the progress of all students; managing a classroom of 15-20 students using positive discipline; meeting with other team members on a regular basis and maintaining strong team communication; communicating with parents and with supervisors as necessary. Candidates should hold or be in the process of completing teacher certification from a MACTE accredited training program.

About the employer:

Netivot is widely recognized for bringing authentic Montessori education to the Jewish community. We welcome general studies teachers of all denominations to work alongside our Jewish studies teachers to provide a well rounded educational experience. Our school community includes children from infancy through 8th grade in an empowering, child-centered environment. Our methods are designed to foster independence, mastery of life skills, academic success, and a positive self concept. We welcome you to explore becoming a part of our team!

Interested applicants should direct their resumes and cover letters to office@mynetivot.com